KIRK MARTIN

Our deepest thanks to a very special person for so graciously providing us with a most appropriate cover entitled "Rainbow Chasers". Kirk Martin, born in Colorado, comes by his love of printing naturally, said Ed Ainsworth in, "The Cowboy In Art". His father, a country printer, taught Kirk the trade at age ten. The qualities of patience and exactitude are required for both a printer and a wood engraver. Martin was inspired to do wood-block carving by the late Paul Landacre, a Los Angeles artist whose bookplates are well known.

Western subjects, particularly horses, are a Kirk Martin speciality. His prints, originally created as illustrations for books, poems, or for framing, adapt beautifully to ex libris as demonstrated by the prints Tony Kroll created for the Walkers and Audrey Arellanes. Any members interested in commissioning a bookplate may write Kirk Martin, P. O. Box 542, Yucca Valley, Ca., 92284. The beautiful mural, "Men To Match Our Mountains", now hanging in the multipurpose room of the Community Center, was done by this talented artist.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is not only a deep pleasure, but a great honor for me to be associated with such a group of people so dedicated to bringing to the public the finest in the field of art. Those that are constantly striving for the betterment of art through their work.

To be a small part of the joy that is brought to so many, and shall continue to be because of these dedicated people.

Thank you to all that have supported and guided me these past months, and for making me a part of this association.
